On September 15, 2017, Sarah Stone filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, et seq.,² (the “Vaccine Act”). Petitioner alleges that she suffered a Shoulder Injury Related to Vaccine Administration (“SIRVA”) in her left shoulder as a result of an influenza (“flu”) vaccine she received on October 26, 2015. Petition at 1-2. Petitioner further alleges that her vaccine related injuries have lasted more than six months. Petition at 2. The case was assigned to the Special Processing Unit of the Office of Special Masters.

On July 17, 2020, a ruling on entitlement was issued, finding Petitioner entitled to compensation for SIRVA. On July 9, 2020, Respondent filed a proffer on award of compensation (“Proffer”) indicating Petitioner should be awarded a total of $111,230.02 (comprised of $97,500.00 for pain and suffering, $11,740.02 for unreimbursed out-of-

RESPONDENT’S PROFFER ON AWARD OF COMPENSATION

I. Compensation for Vaccine Injury-Related Items

On July 16, 2018, respondent conceded that entitlement to compensation was appropriate under the terms of the Vaccine Act. Thereafter, on July 17, 2018, former Chief Special Master Dorsey issued a Ruling on Entitlement finding that petitioner was entitled to vaccine compensation for her Shoulder Injury Related to Vaccine Administration (“SIRVA”). Based on the evidence of record, respondent proffers that petitioner should be awarded $111,230.02, which is comprised of damages for pain and suffering in the amount of $97,500.00, damages for unreimbursed out-of-pocket medical expenses in the amount of $11,740.02, and damages for future medical expenses in the amount of $1,990.00. This amount represents all elements of compensation to which petitioner would be entitled under 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-15(a).¹ Petitioner agrees.

¹ Should petitioner die prior to entry of judgment, the parties reserve the right to move the Court for appropriate relief. In particular, respondent would oppose any award for future lost earnings and future pain and suffering.

II. Form of the Award

The parties recommend that compensation provided to petitioner should be made through a lump sum payment of $111,230.02, in the form of a check payable to petitioner. Petitioner agrees.

Petitioner is a competent adult. Evidence of guardianship is not required in this case.
